Ye holy Martyrs, who preached the Lamb of God, / and like unto lambs were slain, / and are translated into life unfading and everlasting; / fervently beseech ye him to grant us remission of our debts. Blessed art Thou...

Ye who have trod the narrow way of grief; / all ye who, in life have taken upon you the Cross as a yoke, / and followed me by faith; / draw near, enjoy ye the honors and celestial crowns I have prepared for you. Blessed art Thou...

I am the image of thine ineffable glory, / though I bear the brands of transgressions: / Pity Thy creature, O Master, / and purify me by Thy loving-kindness; / grant unto me my desired fatherland, / making me again a citizen of Paradise. Blessed art Thou...

O Thou who of old didst form me from nothingness, / and didst honor me with Thine image divine, / but by the transgression of Thy commandment has returned me again unto the earth / from which I was taken: / Restore Thou me to that image, / and to my former Beauty. Blessed art Thou...

Give rest, O Lord, to the soul of Thy servant, / and establish him/her in Paradise. / Where the Choirs of the Saints, and of the Just, O Lord, / shine like the stars of heaven, / give rest to Thy servant who hath fallen asleep, / overlooking all his/her transgressions.
